DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are replete with lack of antecedent terminology. For example:

Claim 1 recites the limitations "said cutting tools" (line 7), "said cooling stream" (line 10), "said tool" (lines 11-12), "each of said cutting tools" (lines 12-13).

Claim 2 recites the limitation "each said cutting tool" (line 5).

Claim 4 recites the limitation "said cutting tools" (line 3).

Claim 6 recites the limitation "said cutting tools" (line 7), "said cooling stream" (line 10-11) and "the cooling stream" (line 11)

Claim 8 recites the limitation "said respective cutting tool" (line 6-7).

There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claims.

The above is not all-inclusive. Applicant is required to review all claims to ensure proper antecedent basis and resolve lack of clarity issues caused by the current terminology.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-4 and 6-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US Pat. No. 5,186,394 (Tsuji, hereafter '394).

'394 teaches an automatic coolant supply with a control circuit (see col. 4, lines 62-68 and col. 5, lines 1-2, for example) that directs coolant to a machine tool during the machining process through both a pivot movement and a linear movement (see col. 3, lines 44-57, for example) though the use of a L-shaped arm 12 and transmission member 13 (see fig. 1) which both moves linearly and rotationally (see col. 4, lines 10-25, for example).

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claim 5 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
